ORDINARY RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

*Inland Letters.**

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

For a letter not above 4 oz. 1d., and  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every additional 2 oz.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may exceed 24 inches in length, 12 inches in width, or 12 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from a government office.

All letters containing instructions to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction of Letters;" such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once.

Inland Newspapers.

1. The prepaid postage on every registered inland newspaper, whether posted singly or with others in a packet, is one halfpenny; but * Inland letters, parcels, or other postal packets are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, the Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Islands.

a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate than would be chargeable on a book-packet of the same weight.

2. A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

3. Any publication fulfilling the conditions for registration set forth in the Post Office Guide can upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

4. No packet of newspapers may exceed 5 lb. in weight, 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width or depth.

5. A newspaper must be prepaid either by an adhesive stamp, or by the use of a stamped wrapper.

6. (a) A newspaper must be posted either without a cover, or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and so that the same can be easily removed for the purpose of examination.

(b) A newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily seen.

(c) A newspaper may not contain any enclosure (except supplements).

(d) A newspaper and the cover of a newspaper may not bear anything except the names, addresses, and descriptions of the sender and the addressee, with index or reference numbers and letters, the words "with compliments," a request for return in case of non-delivery, the title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post, and a reference to any page of, or place in, the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed.

For any infringement of these regulations newspapers are liable to be surcharged.

Halfpenny Packets.†

For a weight not exceeding 2 oz.  $\frac{3}{4}$ d.

A halfpenny packet posted unpaid is charged on delivery with double postage.

No halfpenny packet may exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

Post Cards.—Official and Private.

1. Official Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, and official Reply Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion of them, can be bought at every Post Office.

2. Nothing whatever may be attached, except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label (not to exceed 2 inches long and  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch wide) bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; a similar label, bearing the sender's name and address, and engravings, photographs, illustrations, and drawings completely adherent to the card: the card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 by  $2\frac{3}{4}$  ins. Stamps in payment of postage must be affixed to the face of the card (i.e., to the side which bears the address). If any of these rules be infringed, the card is treated as a letter liable on delivery to the usual charges.

3. Private Cards prepaid  $\frac{1}{4}$ d. each and Private Reply Cards with a halfpenny stamp on each half can also be used as Post Cards. They must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker nor thinner than the material used for the Official Post Card. They may not exceed  $5\frac{1}{2}$  by  $3\frac{1}{2}$  inches in size, or be less than 4 by  $2\frac{3}{4}$  inches. Neither half of a Private Reply Card may exceed the maximum or be less than the minimum size above stated. The rules in the preceding paragraph also apply to Private Post Cards. A Private Post Card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage.

4. It will be seen from the foregoing rules that there is no legal way of sending a written letter through the post for a postage of a halfpenny, except by means of a Post Card. A certain number of persons seem to imagine that if envelopes are left unfastened letter may be enclosed in them and sent for a postage of a halfpenny only. It is desirable, therefore, to point out that the minimum postage upon all written letters (which are not written on Post Cards) is one penny, whether they be open or closed, and that letters posted contrary to this rule are liable to an additional charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

Certificates of Posting of Unregistered or Uninsured Correspondence (except Parcels).

Proof of the posting of unregistered or uninsured correspondence (except parcels) can be obtained by handing in the article at a Post Office and applying for a certificate of posting. The fee is  $\frac{3}{4}$ d. For further particulars see page 24 of the Post Office Guide.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

Chief Regulations.

1. In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be presented at the counter of a Post Office for transmission as a parcel. It must on no account be deposited in a letter box. Parcels may, however, be accepted by Rural Postmen. The words "Parcel Post" should be written or printed on the left-hand side, immediately above the address.

N.B.—The sender's name and address should appear on the cover, or within the parcel.

2. Any packet or parcel marked "Parcel Post," and posted contrary to this regulation, will, unless admissible and fully prepaid at the letter rate, be charged on delivery with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient postage at the parcel rate.

3. The rates of postage are:—

For a parcel—		s.	d.
For a weight not exceeding 1 lb.		0	3
Exceeding 1 lb. but not 2 lb.		0	4
" 2 lb.	" 3 lb.	0	5
" 3 lb.	" 5 lb.	0	6
" 5 lb.	" 7 lb.	0	7
" 7 lb.	" 8 lb.	0	8
" 8 lb.	" 9 lb.	0	9
" 9 lb.	" 10 lb.	0	10
" 10 lb.	" 11 lb.	0	11

No parcel can be sent exceeding 11 lb. in weight.

4. The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are:—

Greatest length - - - 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined 6 ft. 0 in.

5. The full postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which must be affixed by the sender.

6. A certificate of the posting of a parcel can be obtained at the time at any Post Office. This certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to an Officer of the Post Office, who will sign and return it to him.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for.

7. Parcels may be addressed to and obtained at Post Offices under the same regulations, generally, as letters.

† The special conditions under which circulars in voices, deeds, &c., may be sent as halfpenny packets are given in the Post Office Guide, which may be inspected at any Post Office.

8. Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for are kept for three weeks.

9. Parcels may be obtained at a Post Office by persons not residing within a free delivery, or by persons residing within the free delivery, provided there is no immediate delivery by the usual means: but when parcels addressed to a Post Office, for persons residing within the free delivery, arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, they are not delivered to callers, but are sent out for delivery in the usual way; except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

Re-direction.

10. A charge at the full rate of postage originally payable is usually made for every re-direction. But no fresh charge is made if the original and corrected addresses are both in a delivery from the same Post Office, provided that re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction, and the parcel is not at the time of re-direction, lying at a Returned Letter Office. Persons desiring parcels to be re-directed as well as letters, &c., must fill up two re-direction notices, one for parcels, and one for letters and other postal packets. If the notice for letters be alone filled up, parcels will not be forwarded.

Undelivered Parcels.

11. If an undeliverable parcel bears on the cover the name and address of the sender it is returned to him at once.

12. If the name and address of the sender are not shown on the cover the parcel is sent to the Returned Letter Office of the District, where it is opened and examined. If it is found to contain the name and address of the sender, it is returned to him. No charge is made for the return of an undelivered parcel to the sender.

13. Undelivered parcels which cannot be returned to the senders, and are not applied for, are liable to be disposed of three months after the date of arrival at the Returned Letter Office. Perishable parcels will be dealt with as may be requisite.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.

14. The Postmaster General is not legally liable to make good any claim arising out of the conveyance of a parcel sent by post.

15. Nevertheless, if the parcel is registered, compensation will be given subject to the exceptions (including money) and conditions specified under the heading of "Compensation for Loss or Damage" in the Post Office Guide.

16. If the parcel is not registered, the Postmaster General will, subject to certain conditions, accept liability up to £2 without payment of any fee beyond the postage.

17. To secure compensation for loss a certificate of posting must be obtained at the time of posting.

Postage Stamps, &c.

At Money Order Offices the following are kept for sale to the public—viz., postage stamps, which are also available for the prepayment of telegrams, of the respective values of  $\frac{1}{4}$ d., 1d., 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 2d., 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 7d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., 10s., and £1 [the higher priced stamps are not kept at offices at which no demand for them is likely to arise];—registered letter envelopes;—newspaper wrappers with impressed halfpenny and penny postage stamps;—Inland and Foreign Post Cards, Envelopes with embossed stamps, Letter Cards, and Books of Stamps.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of stamps which have been torn, defaced, cut, or otherwise rendered imperfect. In the term "defaced postage stamps" is included stamps marked by the purchasers with any written, printed, or stamped characters, but not those bearing initials of firms, &c., defined by perforations.

Persons wishing to sell postage stamps must fill up a form, obtainable at any Post Office, stating the value of the stamps and the name, address, and occupation of the vendor. The form and stamps should then be handed in at any Money Order Office and an acknowledgment obtained. An order for the payment of the face value of the stamps, less 5 per cent. commission, will be sent by post from the Chief Office of Account, London, Dublin, or Edinburgh. Stamps offered for sale must not be less than a total value of £1.

Paper taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House, London, W.C., can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be learnt on application at that office. Application should also be made there, or to District Stamp Distributors, for allowance on spoilt stamps, &c.

Prepayment in Money.

The prepayment of Inland letters, private post cards, newspapers, halfpenny packets, and parcels can, as a rule, only be effected by means of postage stamps.

In London, Edinburgh, Dublin, and Glasgow, however, and a few large provincial towns, prepayment can be made in money under certain conditions, which can be learnt on application at the offices, or from the Post Office Guide. Newspapers cannot be prepaid in money.

National Health Insurance Stamps.

All denominations of Health Insurance Stamps, viz.:—1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 2d., 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 3d., 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 4d., 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 5d., 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 6d., 7d., 1s., 1s. 2d., are on sale at Head and Branch Post Offices and at Sub-Offices at which Money Order business is transacted. An Office of the smallest class is usually supplied only with the denominations most in use in the locality, viz.:—In England, Wales, and Scotland, with 3d., 5d., 6d., and 7d., and in Ireland with 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., and 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Any other denomination required can be obtained on two days' notice.

All denominations of Unemployment Insurance Stamps, viz.—2d., 4d., and 5d., are on sale at Post Offices.

Health and Unemployment Insurance Stamps are respectively available only for payment of contributions under Parts I. and II. of the National Insurance Act, and not for any purpose for which postage stamps have hitherto been used and must continue to be used.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

(Inland).

Nothing may be written or printed on the address side of any postal packet which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the postage stamps, or in any other way, is likely to embarrass the officers of the Department in dealing with the packet. Any packet which is posted in contravention of this regulation will be liable to be withheld from delivery. Any packet of such a form or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely to embarrass the officers of the Department is also liable to be withheld from delivery.

Registration and Compensation.

The Postmaster General will (not in consequence of any legal liability, but voluntarily, and as an act of grace), subject to the rules laid down, give compensation up to a maximum limit of £400 for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Postal Packets of all kinds upon prepayment of a fee in addition to the postage. The scale of fees and the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—

Fee.	Limit of Compensation.	Fee.	Limit of Compensation.
2d.	£5	1s. 1d.	£220
3d.	£20	1s. 2d.	£240
4d.	£40	1s. 3d.	£260
5d.	£60	1s. 4d.	£280
6d.	£80	1s. 5d.	£300
7d.	£100	1s. 6d.	£320
8d.	£120	1s. 7d.	340
9d.	£140	1s. 8d.	360
10d.	£160	1s. 9d.	380
11d.	£180	1s. 10d.	400
1s.	£200

Advice of Delivery of Registered Correspondence.

The sender of registered correspondence may arrange at the office of posting, either at the time of posting or subsequently, for an advice of its delivery to be sent to him. The fee is 2d., which is payable by means of stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose.

Enquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered packet should also be accompanied by a fee of 2d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery. If it is found that the Post Office is in fault the enquiry fee will be refunded.

Conveyance of Single Post Letters by Railway.

By an agreement with the Postmaster General certain Railway Companies are permitted to accept and convey by the next available train or steamship Single Inland Post Letters, not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest Post Office Letter Box for delivery by postman. In addition to the postage of 1d., which must be prepaid by means of adhesive stamps, the Companies are authorised to charge a fee of 2d. per letter. For a list of the Companies and further particulars, see the current edition of the Post Office Guide.

N.B.—Save in the case of a letter exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster General (see Post Office Guide), no letter can legally be sent by Railway otherwise than in His Majesty's Mails, or in the manner above described. Any person who sends or conveys or causes to be sent or conveyed otherwise than by the Post a letter not so exempted, or any person who performs, otherwise than by the Post, any services incidental to the conveying of letters from place to place, is liable by statute to heavy penalties.

Re-direction.

1. No charge is made for the re-direction of letters, post cards, newspapers, and half-penny packets, whether registered or not, and whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that they are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, or tampered with.

2. Re-directed letters, &c., which are re-posted later than the day after delivery will be liable to charge at the prepaid rate; any which appear to have been opened will be charged as freshly posted unpaid letters or packets.

3. Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office.

4. If any registered letter or packet, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter or packet (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to the same treatment as any other letter or packet which is marked registered and found in the letter box; and must be surcharged with a registration fee of 4d., minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration.

5. Notices of removal and applications for letters, &c., to be re-directed, must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed. Printed forms can be obtained from the local Postmaster, and in London at any District or Branch Office, or from the postman of the walk; and, when filled up and signed, they should be given to the Postmaster or to the postman; but it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed in the first instance to their new address. The Post Office does not undertake to provide for the re-direction of letters, halfpenny packets, post cards, and newspapers for a longer period than twelve months from the date of removal, but it is open to any person, after his correspondence has been re-directed for that time, to apply for an extension of the privilege on prepayment of a fee of 1s. a year for the second and third years. For continuing official re-direction after three years from the change of address an annual fee of 5s. is payable. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

6. The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, &c., for a person temporarily leaving home, unless the house be left uninhabited, nor does it undertake to re-direct letters addressed to hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings.

Delivery of Letters, &c.

1. All Postmen are prohibited from distributing any letters, parcels, &c., except such as have passed through a Post Office; and from receiving any payment beyond the postage for the delivery or collection of letters, &c.

Special Delivery of Correspondence.

To Residents in Towns.

On ordinary week-days, and on Bank Holidays in England and Ireland, and on the equivalent Local Holidays in Scotland, correspondence for persons residing within a town-delivery area will only be delivered free at the Post Office to Private Box holders and persons entitled to use the Poste Restante. Other persons desiring to obtain correspondence addressed to them must in each case pay a special fee of 3d.; and this fee must be paid for the search (which will only be made if the correspondence for delivery is readily accessible at the time) whether correspondence be found or not. Registered Correspondence may be retained at the Post Office to be called for once daily on payment of a fee of 10s. 6d. a year, or £1 1s. a year for calling more than once.

Residents in Towns may also obtain correspondence without charge on any occasion (a) when a delivery by postman is regularly suspended on a local half-holiday, or (b) when a delivery to callers is duly sanctioned and publicly announced.

Poste Restante.

All Letters, &c., addressed to a Poste Restante to be called for are retained for one month—foreign letters, two months—unless they bear a request for their return within a specified time, which may not exceed the periods mentioned above. If not called for by the end of that time, they are sent to the Returned Letter Office for disposal. But if a letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship, expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

In London there is a Poste Restante at the General Post Office, E.C., and at all Branch Offices.

In the Provinces the Poste Restante is at the Head Post Offices, and, in some cases, at the Branch Post Offices also.

Undelivered Correspondence.

1. A letter originating in the United Kingdom which bears the name and address of the sender on the outside of the cover is at once returned by the Head Post Office of the district to which it is addressed. Otherwise it is forwarded to the Returned Letter Office, where it is at once returned, if possible, to the writer. If it does not contain either the writer's address or an enclosure of importance, the letter is destroyed. Any letter or packet which, on being opened, is found to contain articles above a certain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered, and unless registered at the time of posting, the registration fee of 2d. is charged on the sender. Letters from abroad are returned unopened to the country of origin, after a brief detention in the Returned Letter Office.

Undelivered halfpenny packets, inland post cards, and newspapers are returned only when they bear the sender's name and address with a request for return in case of non-delivery, and they are liable to a second postage for return. The name and address of the sender, with the request for return, should be placed on the outside of such packets before posting, if it is desired to recover them in case of non-delivery. Fuller information will be found in the Post Office Guide.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

Anything indecent, or explosive, or dangerous or any living Creature forbidden altogether.

1. No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, engraving, book, card, or any article having thereon or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character, may be sent by Post at all, nor any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, nor any living creature (live bees alone excepted), nor anything likely to injure the contents of the Mails or any officer of the Post Office. If any such postal packet be tendered for transmission, it is refused, or, if detected in transit, it is detained. The contents of any such packet are liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct, and the sender of it is liable to prosecution by the Department.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

Postal Packets, Letters, and Parcels, are delivered by Express Messenger under the following Services, viz. :—

SERVICE I.

Local. Express Throughout.

Under this Service, Messages, Letters, Parcels, and other articles are conveyed the entire distance by Special Messenger.

Charges.

For a Letter, Packet, or other Article, the Express Fee (inclusive of charges for omnibus, tramcar, railway, &c.) is

For every mile or part of a mile, - 3d.

(Ordinary postage is not charged).

In the Provinces they are accepted at all Post Offices from which there is a delivery of Telegrams, and are delivered in any part of the Town or Rural District, or in any neighbouring town or village, provided such place can be easily reached by messenger by means of public conveyance or otherwise.

SERVICE II.

Express Delivery of Letters, &c., after Transmission by Post.

Under this Service, Letters and Parcels are forwarded by Mail in the regular course of post, and on arrival at the office of delivery, are sent out by Express Messenger.

Fees.

In addition to the full ordinary postage, the Express fee is :—

For every mile or part of a mile from the office of delivery, - 3d.

SERVICE III.

Special Delivery of Letters, &c., in advance of the ordinary Deliveries by Postmen.

Persons or Firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind (including parcels, halfpenny packets, and newspapers), in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special Messenger on payment of the following fees :—

The full Express fee of 3d. a mile as for one packet, and one penny for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. If the letters or parcels have to be searched for at more than one delivery, a charge of 3d. is made for each extra search in addition to the Express fees levied when the special delivery takes place.

Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person or firm to which the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters, &c., are delivered, and also from the more important Town Branch and Sub-Offices.

The applications should be addressed to the Postmaster or "Chief Officer on duty" at the Post Office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered. Where possible, it should be delivered at the Office by hand; but where this cannot be done it may be handed in at any Post Office or posted in any Letter Box in the District served from the office. In the latter case the postage should be prepaid by means of a penny stamp affixed to the outside of the form. Care should be taken, however, that the application reaches the Office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by Postmen commences.

The Express Fee on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the Special Messenger on delivery.

If no letters, &c., for the address given are found, a special Messenger will be sent to inform the applicant to that effect, and the Express Fee will be retained to pay for this service.

In cases where a regular delivery by Special Messenger is required, either on one or more days of the week, or of letters, &c., arriving by particular Inland or Foreign Mails, it will be sufficient if only one Form of Application, altered to meet the requirements, is filled up and left with the Postmaster. In such cases the whole of the charges will be collected on the delivery of the letters.

Town Sub-Offices are open to the Public from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. In those places, however, where one afternoon in the week is observed as a half-holiday, Town Sub-Offices are in many cases closed early.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

The fee is 2½d., which must be paid on application by stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose. Inquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered or insured packet or insured parcel should also be accompanied by a fee of 2½d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery. If it is found that the postal service is in fault, the inquiry fee will be refunded.

Post Cards.

6. Official Post Cards, single and reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single Cards are issued with impressed stamps of 1d. and Reply Cards with impressed stamps of the value of 1d. on each half.

Inland Post Cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards.

7. Private Post Cards, bearing adhesive stamps of the value of one penny, and private reply cards with adhesive stamps of the value of one penny on each half, may be sent as post cards to places abroad, provided that they are in conformity with the official post cards. They must be of the same size and substance as the official cards.

Samples.

The use of the Sample Post to and from Foreign Countries and the Colonies is intended to be restricted to (a) bona fide trade samples of merchandise without saleable value, and (b) natural history specimens, dried or preserved animals and plants, geological specimens and scientific specimens generally, when sent for non-commercial purpose. Packets containing goods for sale, or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity), or articles sent by one private individual to another, which are not actually trade samples or scientific specimens cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

The limit of weight for samples for British Colonies or Possessions, or for non-Union countries, is 5 lb., but for foreign countries in the Postal Union the limit is 12 ounces.

A packet of samples sent to any British Colony or Possession or non-Union country must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth, but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union a packet must not exceed 12 inches in length, 8 in width, or 4 in depth, unless it be in the form of a roll, in which case the limit of size is 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter.

Letters for Passengers on board Mail Packets.

1. Special arrangements are made for the delivery of letters addressed to passengers on board the Union-Castle Company's packets for the Cape, &c., sailing from Southampton, the packets for United States calling at Queenstown, the packets for Canada sailing from Liverpool, the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's packets for Brazil, &c., calling at Lisbon, and the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with mails for Egypt, India, Australia, China, and the Orient Packets from Taranto with mails for Australia. Such letters may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received, but they must be registered—they cannot be insured; the postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid, and they must be addressed to the care of the Commander of the packet.

2. The letters should be addressed thus: "Mr. ———, on board the mail packet ———, for ———, at Southampton, Queenstown, Lisbon, Brindisi, or Taranto, care of the Commander of the packet."

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Letters intended to be sent by Private Ship must be addressed "By Private Ship;" and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added.

The Postage and conditions of transmission of letters, &c., by a Private Ship are the same as by Mail Packet.

Foreign Parcel Post and Cash on Delivery System.

For particulars of these services see Post Office Guide, which may be consulted at any Post Office.

Re-direction.

1. The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, &c., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom, and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign Country or Colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. But a fully paid letter or packet coming here from abroad, and re-directed under the conditions specified in paragraph 2, would not be chargeable for re-direction unless the postage from the place of origin to the final destination were higher than the postage from the place of origin to this Country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

By the use of not more than three stamps affixed to the face of the Order any broken amount may be made up. Odd half-pence will not be paid. Perforated stamps cannot be accepted for the purpose.

The person who sends one of these Orders must fill in the name of the person to whom it is sent, and, if he so wishes, he can also fill in the name of any particular Money Order Office, and the Order will be cashed at that Office and no other. The insertion of the name of the paying office affords a safeguard against payment being made to a wrong person. No Postal Order will be paid, even though presented for payment by a Banker, unless the name of the Payee be inserted in the body of the Order.

These Orders should be cashed within three months of the last day of the month in which they are issued. Thus, if an Order is bought in the middle of January it should be cashed before the 1st of May; if this is not done, it can only be cashed on payment of a fresh poundage. If an Order is presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue it cannot be cashed until reference has been made to the Money Order Department, London.

Payment of a Postal Order cannot be deferred,

The sender of a Postal Order can obtain repayment of the amount (but not the poundage) on presenting the Order and the Counterfoil at the issuing Office. If the Order has been crossed for payment through a bank the sender must first cancel the crossing by writing across the face of the Order the words "Please pay cash," and adding his initials.

Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should detach and keep the counterfoil. Its production will be necessary if the Order should be lost.

The Postmaster General cannot undertake to consider any application respecting a Postal Order which has miscarried, or which has been lost or destroyed, unless the counterfoil be produced, and unless proof be given to his satisfaction that the name of the payee was inserted in the Order before the holder parted with it.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster General will not be liable to any further claim.

TELEGRAPHS.

Inland.

Charges.—The charge for the first 12 words is 6d.; every additional word,  $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

Forms with embossed stamps can be obtained singly or in books of 20, interleaved with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 10s. 2d. per book.

Every word telegraphed is charged for, whether in the addresses or text.

Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word.

Prepaid Replies.

The cost of a reply not exceeding forty-eight words may be prepaid, and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who may send his reply from any Telegraph Office or use the form to prepay any message within two months. If the form be not used, the value of it will at any time within the same period be refunded to the sender of the original telegram if he applies and sends the form to the local Postmaster.

Corrected Addresses.

Should the sender of a telegram, upon being informed that his message cannot be delivered in consequence of the addressee being unknown, furnish a correct address or require the telegram to be presented a second time at the original address, he must pay a further fee of 6d. If, however, the new address is in another town, or, in the case of London, in another postal district, the cost of a fresh telegram must be paid.

Repetition.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded to him if it should be found that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted. The sender may also have a telegram repeated back from office to office on payment of an additional half rate at the time of handing in, but in this case no copy of the repetition is given to sender or addressee.

Delivery.

The amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery up to three miles from the terminal office, or within the town postal delivery of the terminal office, if a Head Office, when that delivery extends beyond three miles. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 3d. per mile or part of a mile, reckoning from the limit of the free delivery.

Multiple Addresses.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person in the same free delivery are delivered at an additional charge of twopence per copy, in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy. Each London Postal District is regarded for this purpose as forming a separate delivery, and when a multiple address telegram for London contains one or more registered addresses, the District initials must be inserted after each registered address, and be paid for.

Abbreviated Addresses.

Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of a fee of one guinea per annum. Applications for such addresses should be made to the Chief Office.

Radiotelegrams to and from Ships at Sea.

Radiotelegrams are accepted at any Telegraph Office for transmission from various Coast Stations (both in the United Kingdom and abroad) to certain ships equipped with wireless telegraph apparatus. Radiotelegrams from ships are also received at such stations, and are thence transmitted to their destination by wire.

For further particulars see Post Office Guide.

FOREIGN.

Foreign telegrams may be written in plain language or in secret language. Secret language comprises code words and figure or letter cypher.

In plain language the length allowed for a single word is 15 letters, additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

Words in plain language in the text of a mixed telegram (that is a telegram containing words in plain language and words in code language) are charged for at the rate of 10 letters to a word, any excess being charged for at the rate of 10 letters to a word.

Code words must not contain more than ten letters, and must be drawn from one of the following languages: English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin; the artificial words must be pronounceable according to the usages of one of those languages.

Combinations in plain language, code or cypher, formed by running together two or more real words (whole or contracted), or a real word and some other expression, are prohibited.

In cypher language, which comprises groups of figures or letters having a secret meaning, the groups are counted at five figures or letters to a word. Figure and letter cypher cannot be combined in one group.

A reply of any length may be prepaid to a foreign telegram (minimum 10d). The amount paid for a reply is refunded to the sender of the original telegram if no reply is sent, provided that application is made within three months. If the addressee does not use the reply form of a telegram, the cost of the reply will be returned to the sender on application to the Secretary, General Post Office, within three months of the date of issue of the form. The form must be returned with the application.

The sender can have his telegram repeated from office to office throughout the whole course of its transmission by paying over and above the charge for the original transmission a quarter of that charge, the expression "TC" being inserted immediately before the receiver's address.

The receiver of a telegram can obtain the correction of passages which are doubtful, by paying a sum calculated by multiplying the number of words to be repeated by the rate per word to the place from which repetition is to be obtained. The minimum charge is 10d. The amount is refunded if the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted.

If the repetition shows that the repeated words were not all inaccurately transmitted in the first instance, a proportionate part only of the amount paid for repetition will be refunded.

A telegram can be forwarded partly by telegraph and partly by post. Thus a telegram intended, say, for India, can be telegraphed to Brindisi to catch the outgoing mail, and thence forwarded by post to its destination. In addition to the cost of the telegram to the place of posting, a charge of 2½d. is collected from the sender if the telegram is to be posted from one country to another, but no charge is made for postage if the telegram is to be posted from one place to another in the same country. If the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter, a registration fee of 2½d. is charged in addition to the charge for postage (if any).

The sender should write the word "Post" before the addressee's name, the name of the terminal telegraph office being written last in the address. For example: "Post Smith 10 Broad Street Calcutta Brindisi." The word "Post" is charged for as a part of the telegram. Registered abbreviated addresses cannot be used.

PRIVATE TELEGRAPHS.

1. The Postmaster-General undertakes the construction and maintenance, on rental terms, of private telegraph and telephone lines. Such lines may be between the offices or houses of firms or private individuals, or between such offices or houses and Postal Telegraph Offices. By means of such lines the renter can send and receive telegrams, forward messages for delivery as express or ordinary letters, or obtain the services of express messengers in the manner described above.

2. The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current at either ten or one o'clock.

3. All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals should be addressed to "The Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C."

The Postmaster-General is not liable for any losses sustained or expenses incurred in consequence of the inaccurate transmission, delay or non-delivery of a telegram.

TRUNK TELEPHONE LINES.

Communication by Telephone has been established between Glasgow and the more important towns in the United Kingdom.

The scale of charges for 3 minutes' conversation is as follows:—

For distances not exceeding 25 miles	...	...	...	...	3d.
" exceeding 25 miles and not exceeding 50 miles	...	...	...	...	6d.
" " 50 " " " 75 "	...	...	...	...	9d.
" " 75 " " " 100 "	...	...	...	...	1s.
For every additional 40 miles or fraction thereof	...	...	...	...	6d.

The period of conversation for a single fee is limited to three minutes, but any person may secure the uninterrupted use of a Trunk line for six minutes by prepaying a double fee, up to 7 p.m. The charge for a six minutes' conversation between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. is the same as for a conversation of three minutes' duration in the day time. During the same period, for a three minutes' conversation, for which the day charge is 9d., a reduced fee of 6d. is charged, and half the usual day charge is made where the ordinary fee is 1s., or more.

Special rates are charged where Submarine or other specially expensive lines are used.

SCOTLAND.

LIST OF POST TOWNS.

The hours for closing the Letter Box are liable to alteration in the course of the current year, and therefore cannot be given here. The Tables exhibited on the board at the Post Office or the Local Post Office Guide ought to be consulted.

All Offices at which Money Order and Post Office Savings Banks business is transacted are marked thus, m. Postal Telegraph Offices are marked thus, t.

When in the subjoined list one place only is mentioned, it is a Head Office, or what is termed an Independent Sub-Office—that is, a Sub-Office which receives its correspondence direct from a Head Post Office other than its own Head Office; and when two are mentioned, the first is a Sub-Office, and the second is the Head Office, to which the first is subordinate. It sometimes happens that there is a Money Order Office nearer the Sub-Office than is the Head Office; in these cases such Money Order Office is added as a third name, for the information of any persons who may wish to remit money to the neighbourhood. All Head Offices are Money Order Offices, but all Sub-Offices are not.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a List of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licenses are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

Any instrument referring to any Act repealed by Stamp Act, 1891, shall, unless context otherwise require, be construed to refer to that Act or the corresponding enactment thereto.—61 and 62 Vict. c. 46, § 7 (2).

(c.) If instrument not duly stamped in conformity with the foregoing provisions, the person in whose favor the instrument operates, or the settler, shall incur a fine of £10, and, in addition to the penalty payable by law on stamping the instrument, there shall be paid an additional penalty equivalent to the stamp duty thereon, unless a reasonable excuse for the delay in stamping, or for the omission to stamp, or the insufficiency of stamp, be afforded to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, or of the court, judge, arbitrator, or referee before whom it is produced, § 15 (2).

The personal penalty is to be sued for by information in the Court of Exchequer, in the name of the Lord Advocate, and may be recovered with full costs of suit.

The Board of Inland Revenue are empowered to reward any person who may inform them of any case in which the personal penalty has been incurred, or who may assist in the recovery of such penalty.—Board's notice, May, 1888.

Board may remit penalties. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, remit the penalty or penalties, or any part thereof.—§ 15 (3) (b.)

Unstamped or insufficiently stamped instruments produced in Court, if duty and penalty be paid to officer of Court, may be received in evidence.—

§ 14. (1.) Upon the production of an instrument chargeable with any duty as evidence in any court of civil judicature in any part of the United Kingdom, or before any arbitrator or referee, notice shall be taken by the judge, arbitrator, or referee, of any omission or insufficiency of the stamp thereon, and if the instrument is one which may legally be stamped after the execution thereof, it may, on payment to the officer of the court, whose duty it is to read the instrument, or the arbitrator or referee, of the amount of the unpaid duty, and the penalty payable on stamping the same, and of a further sum of £1, be received in evidence, saving all just exceptions on other grounds.

The provision applies to sea policies, but penalty is £100, and a further sum of £1 (§ 95, 2).

The officer of the Court, &c., to account for duty and penalties.—(2.) The officer, arbitrator, or referee receiving the said duty and penalty shall give a receipt for the same, and make an entry in a book kept for that purpose of the payment and of the amount thereof, and shall communicate to the Commissioners the name or title of the proceeding in which, and of the party from whom, he received the duty and penalty, and the date and description of the instrument, and shall pay over to such person as the Commissioners may appoint, the money received by him for the duty and penalty.

ADJUDICATION.

DOUBTS AS TO SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

Commissioners may be required to express their opinion as to duty. Mode and effect of proceeding.—§ 12. (1.) Subject to such regulations as Commissioners may think fit to make, Commissioners may be required by any person to express their opinion with reference to any executed instrument upon the following questions:—

(a.) Whether it is chargeable with any duty:

(b.) With what amount of duty it is chargeable.

(2.) Commissioners to be furnished with an abstract of instrument, and such evidence as they deem necessary to show whether facts and circumstances affecting liability to duty are fully and truly set forth.

(3.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is not chargeable with any duty, such instrument may be stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.

(4.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is chargeable with duty, they shall assess the duty with which it is in their opinion chargeable, and if or when instrument is duly stamped in accordance with assessment of the Commissioners, it may be also stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.

(5.) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with any duty, or is duly stamped, shall be admissible in evidence, and available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.

(6.) Provided as follows:—

(a.) Instrument to be stamped according to opinion.—An instrument upon which the duty has been assessed by the Commissioners shall not, if it is unstamped or insufficiently stamped, be stamped otherwise than in accordance with the assessment.

(b.) Securities without limit not to be adjudicated.—Nothing in this section contained extends to any instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty, and made as a security for money or stock without limit, or shall authorize the stamping after the execution thereof of any instrument which by law cannot be stamped after execution.

(c.) A statutory declaration made for the purpose of this section shall not be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable and every person by whom any such declaration is made shall, on payment of the duty chargeable upon the instrument to which it relates, be relieved from any fine or disability to which he may be liable, by reason of the omission to state truly in the instrument any fact or circumstance as aforesaid.

Persons dissatisfied may appeal.—§ 13. (1.) Any person who is dissatisfied with the assessment of the Commissioners, may, within twenty-one days after the date of the assessment, and on payment of duty in conformity therewith, appeal against the assessment to His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, and may for that purpose require the Commissioners to state and sign a case, setting forth the question upon which their opinion was required, and the assessment made by them.

Mode of proceeding.—(2.) The Commissioners shall thereupon state and sign a case accordingly, and deliver the same to the person by whom it is required, and the case may within seven days thereafter be set down by him for hearing.

(3.) Upon the hearing of the case the court shall determine the question submitted, and, if the instrument in question is in the opinion of the court chargeable with any duty, shall assess the duty with which it is chargeable.

(4.) If it is decided by the court that the assessment of the Commissioners is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with the erroneous assessment, together with any fine or penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the court to be repaid to the appellant, with or without costs as the court may determine.

(5.) If the assessment of the Commissioners is confirmed, the court may make an order for payment to the Commissioners of the costs incurred by them in relation to the appeal.

	Duty per cent.
To husband or wife or children, or their descendants, or lineal ancestors, - -	£1 0
Brother or sister, or descendants, - -	5 0
All other relations or strangers, - -	10 0

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of; and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (ib. § 11).

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43).

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Where a full and true account containing all material facts has been rendered, liability for duty to cease after six years from settlement of account (52 Vict. c. 7, § 14).

Estates not exceeding £300 and deceased dying on or after 1st June, 1881. Payment of fixed duty of 30s. on inventory to be in full of claim to legacy duty on estate to which such inventory relates (44 Vict. c. 12, § 36).

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY.

(16 and 17 Vict. c. 51; 51 Vict. c. 8, §§ 21 and 22; 52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 10-12, 14, and 15; 57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, § 18; and 59 and 60 Vict. c. 28, § 3.)

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY where successor competent to dispose thereof, is on the principal value after deducting Estate Duty, &c. (institute or heir of entail not to be deemed competent to dispose unless entitled to disentail without consent or having consent valued) and, where not competent to dispose, is on the annual value after allowance of the necessary outgoings as an annuity for the life of the successor, to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty on the capital value, and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personality.

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100. 2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition.

The duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment.

Duty on successions in arrear, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Liability of purchasers and mortgagees for duty limited to certain specified periods. Where full and true account containing all material facts rendered, liability in certain cases, &c., to cease in six years from settlement of account. Limitation of liability for duty where attested copy of document lodged (52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 12, 13, 14, and 15).

Note.—Forms of the accounts for Legacy and Succession Duties may be obtained at the Legacy Duty Office, Edinburgh, and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

Exemptions, &c.—A house or tenement is exempt when occupied solely for the purpose of trade or business, or of any profession or calling by which occupier seeks a livelihood or profit, and although a menial or domestic servant, or other person of a similar grade or description, not otherwise employed by the occupier, may dwell therein for the protection thereof. Where house let in different tenements, relief to be granted in respect of tenement occupied as above, or unoccupied, on notice being given to Surveyor of Taxes. A house is also exempt, if used for the sole purpose of providing separate dwellings, where the annual value of each dwelling does not amount to £20, provided the district medical officer under the Public Health Act, or another medical practitioner appointed by the Local Authority, certifies that the house affords suitable accommodation for each of the families or persons inhabiting it, and satisfies sanitary requirements. Where the annual value of each dwelling amounts to £20 but does not exceed £40, assessment will be confined to annual value exclusive of dwellings of annual value below £20 each, and rate will be reduced to 3d.

BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF HACKNEY CARRIAGES AND THE DRIVERS THEREOF.

At Glasgow, the twenty-second day of October, Eighteen hundred and ninety-one years, the Magistrates' Committee of "Police Commissioners, Glasgow," in virtue of the powers conferred on them by "The Glasgow Police Act, 1866," hereby make and enact the following Bye-laws for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages, and the conduct of the Proprietors and Drivers thereof, and ordain said Bye-laws to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the date of their being approved and confirmed by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire, in terms of said Statute, and until expressly altered.

A License shall not be granted to a person under the age of 18 years, or any person who shall have been convicted of theft or any crime inferring dishonesty.

Carriages not to be Licensed till Inspected.

No License shall be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the Carriage, Horse, and Harness shall have been examined by the Chief Constable, Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or other person appointed by the Magistrates' Committee, and reported in writing, to the Magistrates' Committee, to have all the requisites and to be in a fit state to be licensed. No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Licensee's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Licensee of each Carriage, and the number of such Carriage, shall be painted in a straight line on the outside of each door, immediately under the window, in Roman Letters not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from that of the Carriage, and be continued legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Number of License to be painted or affixed on Outside of Carriage.

The number of each Carriage on an enamelled iron plate shall be affixed on the back of the Carriage, and be distinctly visible from the outside, and be kept legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Licenses to be numbered Consecutively and Duplicate signed by the Registrar.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Licensee, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, and the License will then lapse and become null and void, if it has not already done so by expiration or suspension or revocation; and such Carriage shall not again be used as a Licensed Hackney Carriage until it has been relicensed.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall, whenever required by the Chief Constable, have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. And when within their respective yards, coach-houses, or stables, shall turn out for hire as soon as practicable, or can be done without injury to his servants or horses, after being called upon, between Eleven o'clock at night and Nine in the morning.

Carriages let out for Hire at other places, or met with, if not engaged.

All Carriages let out on any station or place for hire shall be subject to the Stand Rules; as also Carriages when met with if not at the time actually engaged.

Carriages to take their places on Stands in the order of their arrival.

All Carriages shall take their station on the Street Stands in the order of their arrival, and at such distance from each other as that persons walking may conveniently pass between them; and when any Carriage shall be called or driven off any Stand, the Carriage immediately behind shall draw up to the place vacated, and any other Carriage behind in the like order, and when a vacancy shall occur at the lower end of the line, it may be taken up by the first Carriage from the next division of the Stand, or if the first shall not be driven to it, then by the second, and so on in the order of the line. After setting down a fare, the Carriage may proceed to the nearest stand at which there is room.

Arrangement of Carriages at places of Public Amusement and Assembly.

All Carriages ordered back for a party, at any place of public amusement or assembly, shall have the preference of drawing up nearest to the door or entrance of such place, and shall drive up in the order in which they arrive. When a party is put down the Driver shall immediately pass on and not wait at the door, but take such place as the Police may direct; and all Carriages waiting for hire at any such place shall stand on the opposite side of the street, or at such other place as the Police may on such occasions direct, for the purpose of preventing confusion.

DRIVERS.

Every Driver shall be able to read and write, shall be at least 18 years of age, shall be of good character, and have experience in driving, shall be free from infirmity of mind and body, and shall have a knowledge of the localities in and about the city and suburbs.

Every Driver shall, when he receives his License, be furnished with a Badge by the Registrar, and shall leave Half-a-Crown as security for the Badge, which sum will be returned when the Badge is given up. In the event of the Badge being in-injured while in possession of the Driver, the expenses of any necessary repairs will be deducted from the sum deposited.

He shall wear the Badge displayed conspicuously on his left breast above his outer garment, while on the stand or driving; or otherwise employed as a Driver, except when engaged at a marriage, or funeral, or country excursion, or airing, when he may wear his Badge concealed.

No Driver to lend or permit any other person to use his License or Badge, or to wear any other Badge than the one issued to him by the Registrar.

No Driver shall wilfully damage his Badge, and he shall not wear a Badge on which the lettering is not distinctly legible.

Every Driver who ceases to act, or whose License shall have been suspended by the Magistrate, or shall have expired, shall, within three days thereafter, deliver his License and Badge at the office of the Registrar.

He shall always have with him while on the Stand, or driving, a copy of the Clauses of the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, relative to Hackney Carriages and Drivers; also Bye-laws, and Tables of Fares and Distances, and Duplicate of Carriage License, and Reference Ticket, which he will exhibit, on demand, to any Constable, or to any person who has hired or used his Carriage, or who is about to do so; which Clauses, Bye-laws, or Tables of Distances, with the Duplicates of Carriage License, he shall keep at all times clean and legible.

He shall keep his Carriage Lamps clean and well trimmed and lighted at all times, except from 1st May to 15th August inclusive, while driving, and on the Stand, between sunset and sunrise.

Every Driver shall be cleanly in his person, and shall, when on the Stand or driving, wear a good hat, and other good, clean, and respectable clothes, and shall conduct himself, at all times, in a proper, civil, and decorous manner.

Driver to deliver Reference Ticket to Hirer of Carriage.

Every Driver shall, if demanded, deliver to the person hiring his Carriage, when entering the Carriage, or at any time during or on completion of the journey, a Ticket, having printed thereon the number of the Carriage and of the Driver, the name and address of the Proprietor, and the following words—"Reference in case of complaints or of property being left in the Carriage," &c. Fares on reverse side.

Driver not to stand or Loiter in streets appropriated as Public Stands when full number of Carriages on Stand.

No Driver of any Carriage shall stand or loiter with the same in any of the squares, streets, or places appropriated as Public Stands, at the time when the full number of Carriages authorised to ply on the respective Stand shall be thereon, or in any street or place not appropriated as a Public Stand, except at places of public amusement or entertainment, and on the occasion thereof.

Property accidentally left in any Carriage.

After completion of any journey, the Driver shall carefully search the Carriage for any property which may have been left therein; and in every case of property being left in any Carriage by any person or persons who may have hired or used the same, such property shall be taken and delivered up to the person or persons who have left the same, and, if not so delivered up, shall, within twelve hours after the property is found, be taken in the state in which it was found to the Central Police Office, and there delivered to the Registrar, with the name of the Owner and Driver, and number of the Carriage; the Driver in such case to be rewarded at the expense of the hirer, which reward shall be a sum equal to at least 2s. 6d. in the £ left with the Magistrate or Registrar, to be handed to the Driver if the property is given up on oath with his presence.

Driver not to Canvass for Employment.

No Driver shall canvass or importune for employment; nor shall Carriages be taken from their station in search of employment, but shall wait their chance in the order prescribed by Bye-laws 21 and 22, except when taken to places of public amusement or entertainment.

Drivers not to Smoke.

Drivers shall not smoke when driving, after an objection made by any person riding in, or upon, any such Carriage.

As to Feeding Horses on Stands.

SUPPLEMENTARY BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF HACKNEY (MOTOR) CARRIAGES AND THE DRIVERS THEREOF IN THE CITY OF GLASGOW.

By virtue and in terms of powers conferred on them by the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, the Magistrates Committee appointed by and acting under the Glasgow Police Acts, 1866 to 1909, hereby make and enact the following Supplementary Bye-Laws for the regulation of motor hackney carriages within the boundaries of the City of Glasgow, and the conduct of the proprietors and drivers thereof, and ordain said Bye-Laws to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the date of their being approved and confirmed by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire, in terms of said Statute, and until expressly altered.

CARRIAGES.

1. Proprietors of carriages propelled by mechanical means shall furnish a Certificate from a responsible firm of Engineers that each carriage submitted for licensing is, so far as the mechanism is concerned, fit for public use.
2. The licence shall not be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the carriage shall have been examined and approved by the Magistrates Committee, the Chief Constable, the Registrar of Police, the Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or a person or persons authorised by said Committee.
3. All motor carriages shall comply with the requirements of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896 (59 and 60 Vict., Cap. 36), and of the Regulations of the Secretary for Scotland made in pursuance thereof.
4. Every carriage shall, before being licensed, be provided with lamps, and have roof, springs, wheels, cushions, lining, panels, doors, windows, and appointments perfectly clean and in perfect order and repair; the paint and varnish bright and in good condition; the steps of entry safe and convenient, and shall also have skin, rope, or coir mats, or other matting equally comfortable, for passengers' feet. Any such carriage, after being licensed, shall be kept in such like good order and repair and cleanliness.

5. The name of the licensee of each carriage shall be painted in a conspicuous place on the carriage in Roman letters not less than one inch in height and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from the ground colour, and shall be continued clearly legible during the currency of the licence.

6. Two plates, on which is inscribed the number of each carriage (such number being the number assigned to it as a motor car in pursuance of Section 2 of the Motor Car Act, 1903), which must conform as to lettering, numbering, and otherwise with the Regulations for the time being made under the said Motor Car Act, 1903, by the Secretary for Scotland, shall be securely fixed, one on the front of, and the other on the back of the carriage, in such positions as the Magistrates Committee or person authorised by them may direct, and every letter or figure on the plates shall be in an upright position and easily distinguishable, in the case of the plate placed in front of the carriage from in front of the carriage, and in the case of the plate placed on the back of the carriage from behind the carriage, and such letters and figures shall be kept legible and easily distinguishable, and shall not be concealed in any manner of way.

Designs, painted or otherwise, shown upon the carriage, may, with the approval of the Magistrates Committee, be used instead of plates, and any reference to plates in these By-Laws shall be construed to include a reference to such designs.

7. A lamp shall be placed on the back of the carriage, and shall be of such dimensions and so contrived as to illuminate, by means of reflection, transparency, or otherwise, and render clearly and easily distinguishable every letter or figure on the identification or number plate on the back of the carriage.

8. A metal plate bearing the number which is to distinguish the carriage, and hereinafter called the "Number Plate," as also a plate or printed card in a slip-in frame (called the Fare Plate or Card), setting forth in distinct figures and lettering such particulars as to fares as are to be set forth on the obverse side of the ticket required to be delivered by the driver to the hirer, shall be affixed in a conspicuous position inside the carriage, and shall be kept clearly legible and easily distinguishable, and not concealed in any manner of way.

9. A horn or gong, or other approved means of giving due warning of the approach of the vehicle, shall be provided and securely fixed on some part of the carriage close to, and within easy reach of, the driver.

10. Every carriage shall be fitted with a check-string, bell, or whistle, or other approved means of communication between the passenger and driver.

11. Provision shall be made on every carriage for the conveyance of luggage not exceeding 112 lb.

12. A suitable appliance for extinguishing fire shall be carried with each vehicle, to be readily available in case of emergency.

13. Every taximeter or distance recorder affixed to a carriage shall conform to any regulations which may from time to time be issued by the said Magistrates Committee.

14. Every taximeter shall have holes or lugs on each side, so that a wire can be passed through and sealed, or shall be fitted with other approved means of effectually sealing up the case containing the working parts.

When the gear which operates the distance recorder is not enclosed in the main part of the machine, the case or cover of the same shall be made so that it may be sealed in a similar manner.

15. The licensee shall give a guarantee that each taximeter instrument affixed to each carriage (giving its number) has been carefully examined and tested, and will give correct readings if a certain size of road wheel and driving pinion are used.

16. The measurement of the diameter or circumference of the road wheel by which the taximeter is driven, as also the number of teeth on the driving pinion, shall be clearly stencilled on the body of each instrument, or on a suitable plate provided near to the instrument. These figures shall be open for inspection by the Hackney Carriage Inspector appointed by the said Magistrates Committee, or by any Constable in uniform.

17. No taximeter or distance recorder, except such as has been tested and approved by the Registrar of Police, the Hackney Carriage Inspector, or other person authorised by the Magistrates Committee to test such instruments, shall be affixed to and used on any carriage.

18. Taximeters shall only be fitted in such positions, and in such manner as may be approved by the Magistrates Committee, the Chief Constable, the Registrar of Police, the Hackney Carriage Inspector, or a person authorised to examine and test such instruments.

19. Each taximeter instrument shall be stamped or sealed by, or under authority of, the Magistrates Committee, after trial and approval, as to distance and time. This stamp or seal shall not be broken until intimation has been given to the Registrar of Police. Should the seal be broken, the instrument shall be re-tested and passed before being again used.

20. No taximeter instrument shall at any time be affixed to a carriage without the Registrar of Police being forthwith advised of the particulars of such affixing.

21. No taximeter instrument which is, or has become, in any way defective, shall be used upon a carriage, and upon service by the Registrar of Police of a notice "not to use," the taximeter shall be at once removed, or the carriage fitted with it shall be immediately withdrawn.

22. A proprietor, upon ceasing to use a taximeter, shall intimate the same in writing to the Registrar of Police.

23. A taximeter shall in no circumstances be used upon a carriage in connection with a wheel of diameter different from that for which the taximeter has been designed, geared, and tested.

24. No taximeter shall be used for a longer period than six months without re-testing.

25. Every taximeter shall, during the period between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise, be illuminated in such a way as to render clearly distinguishable and easily read every letter and figure thereon.

DRIVERS.

26. Every driver of a motor hackney carriage shall, on all occasions, be careful to observe the proper rules for driving, provided that when passing a tramway car or any other vehicle which runs on fixed rails he may pass on either side of such car or other vehicle. At a Tramway stopping place he shall draw up until the roadway is clear of passengers entering or leaving a tramway car.

27. Every driver shall, when about to alter speed or direction, give clear and sufficient indication of his intention to do so, and shall be careful to prevent danger, obstruction, annoyance, or inconvenience, and shall drive slowly and cautiously in crowded thoroughfares, and when turning from one street into another, and passing over busy crossings.

28. Every driver shall, by sounding the horn or gong or other instrument, give audible and sufficient warning of the approach or position of the motor carriage.

29. No driver shall conceal, or remove, or deface, or alter, or cause, or permit to be concealed, removed, defaced, or altered, any name or number or lettering on the carriage or on any plates thereon, or on the taximeter instrument.

30. Every driver shall keep all the carriage lamps clean and well lighted at all times during the period between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise, and in like manner shall keep clearly illuminated the taximeter affixed to the carriage, so that every letter and figure thereon shall be clearly distinguishable and easily read.

31. Under no other circumstances than those provided for in Section 235 of the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, shall a driver allow any person to ride beside him.

32. No driver shall permit or allow any person to stand or loiter beside or near the carriage, or permit or allow any person to sound the horn or gong or other warning instrument while the carriage is on any stand, or when kept waiting for a passenger when on hire.

33. The flag attached to a taximeter shall be kept in a vertical position, and the Indicators at zero when the carriage is disengaged.

34. The driver shall lower the flag attached to a taximeter to the recording position when the carriage has been engaged and the hirer has had a reasonable time to take his seat (provided that if from any cause whatsoever out with the hirer's control the driver is unable to start the carriage, the flag shall be at once lowered to or placed at the non-recording position, and remain in that position until the carriage has been started on the journey, when it shall again be raised or put to the recording position), and during the whole course of the journey the flag shall be kept at the recording position. On the completion of the journey, and while the passenger is in the act of paying the amount of fare recorded, the driver shall lower, put, or place the flag to the third or "stopped" position, so that the meter shall cease to record. He shall not raise the flag to the vertical position until the hirer has examined, or has had an opportunity of examining, the taximeter and the amount of fare recorded.

35. Should the taximeter record a fare higher than is clearly in proportion to the mileage covered, the driver shall not be entitled to exact or demand more than the legal fare by distance chargeable under these Bye-Laws, and in case of dispute the distance shall be ascertained from the Table of distances appended to the Hackney Carriage Bye-Laws. The like fare shall be exigible should the taximeter stop recording during the journey.

36. In the event of the mechanism of the carriage breaking down, or in any way becoming unfit to convey the hirer to the destination for which the carriage is engaged, the driver shall not be entitled to charge any fare for the distance already travelled, provided that, should the hirer elect to wait until repairs are completed, the full fare recorded on the completion of the journey shall be exigible, less the amount of fare chargeable for waiting, in accordance with the rate for waiting fixed under these Bye-Laws.

37. A driver shall not permit a passenger or any unlicensed person to drive the motor carriage. Provided that, with the permission of the Registrar of Police, a "learner," though not licensed as a driver, may, when and so long as accompanied by a licensed driver, drive the motor carriage when not hired.

38. A driver who is only licensed to drive a carriage drawn by animal power shall not drive a carriage propelled by mechanical means, and no proprietor shall so employ such a driver.

39. No driver shall demand or receive, over and above his fare, any sum for, or by way of, back fare for the return of his carriage from the place at which it is discharged.

The City Hall Saturday evening concerts were started in 1854 as a counter-attraction to the pernicious influence of the public-house, and for fifty-nine years they have continued to exercise a wholesome and elevating influence in the community, and have contributed in no small degree to the cultivation of a higher taste for, and appreciation of good music.

Medical lectures are arranged at which the facts and experience in reference to the effects of alcohol in health and disease are dealt with by some of the leading medical men in the city.

The Evangelization Society is a company of preachers associated to preach the Gospel. As individuals they belong to various denominations of the Christian Church, but as Evangelists they belong to none. They go out through the Evangelization Society not as members of any particular Church, but only as Evangelists, to preach the Evangel. The Society was established in 1864. Over one thousand Missions are supplied annually with Evangelists in England, Scotland, and Wales, on the application of Clergymen, Ministers, and others. As no stated charge is made for the services of its preachers, no place need be without the Gospel at the hands of the Evangelist so long as this Society exists.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY.

Established in Glasgow, 1848.

Summary of Report for Fifteen Months ending 31st March, 1912.

The primary object of the Society is to visit poor families in their own homes and give assistance in money, food, clothing, &c., to deserving cases; but no work of charity, which it is possible for a layman to undertake, comes amiss to the members—they extend a helping hand to the deserving poor, no matter what their religion may be.

During the fifteen months ending 31st March, 1912, the number of families relieved was 7,981, comprising 27,557 persons. The number of visits to the homes of the poor was 56,151. Free dinners to poor children, 14,288. 152 persons were assisted to get work, and 87 sent to friends. Visits to reformatory boys on probation numbered 925. Through the influence of the Society 214 admissions were procured for persons to Infirmarys, Hospital, Lanark Orphanage and Homes.

In addition to the other works of the Society, the members have the undernoted homes under their care:—Oak Street, Anderston, for working boys; Whitevale Street, for working boys; Market Street, for boys on probation; and Rutherglen, for destitute children.

The total disbursements amounted to £8,196 4s. 4½d., leaving a balance of £204 7s. 2½d. The main funds of the Society show a deficit of £132 9s. 6d. on the fifteen months' working. The Society holds no property or investments. Its income is derived entirely from voluntary contributions and is expended as received for the relief of the poor.

The work is carried on gratuitously by 958 members, all laymen, belonging to the various Catholic congregations in the Archdiocese of Glasgow. The books and accounts are audited annually by Messrs. Moores, Carson & Watson, C.A.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, St. Vincent de Paul Society, 92 Dunlop Street, Glasgow, or members of the Executive Committee.

28 Cathedral Square.

The Rt. Hon. the Lord Provost, chairman; James D. Borthwick, City Chamberlain, hon. treasurer; Robert King, hon. secretary; R. M. B. Colquhoun, superintendent; Miss Marshall, bible woman for female prisoners.

165,590 men and 88,314 women, in all 253,904 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our handsome building in Cathedral Square for the reception of the discharged prisoners and convicts has now been occupied by us for fourteen years, and its close contiguity to the exit gate of the Glasgow Prison makes it peculiarly suitable for the objects pursued by our Society. There they are met every morning at eight by our officials, and are each presented with a card of invitation to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and butter is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. From the outset they are informed that help in shape of money is not given, the Society being prepared to adopt the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who is disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we have steadily adhered, and the result is that during the twenty-four years of its prosecution 27,859 men have been placed in various large industrial works in the city and neighbourhood. In 1912 work was found for 710 men.

Admission to Rescue Homes is procured for those women who desire to break with their old courses.

RAILWAY BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION, FOR THE RELIEF OF RAILWAY OFFICERS AND SERVANTS, THEIR ORPHANS, WIDOWS, AND CHILDREN, WHEN IN DISTRESSED CIRCUMSTANCES.

INSTITUTED MAY, 1858.

Scotch branch office, St. Enoch Station, Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman, D. Cooper, Esq., Glasgow & South Western Railway; W. Andrew, Esq., North British Railway, J. Blackburn, Esq., Caledonian Railway, J. C. Christie, Esq., North British Railway, C. E. Cockburn, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway. G. Davidson, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway. J. Black, Esq., North British Railway, F. H. Gillies, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, W. F. Jackson, Esq., North British Railway, T. S. Mackintosh, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, D. A. Matheson, Esq., Caledonian Railway, R. Park, Esq., Highland Railway, T. W. Pettigrew, Caledonian Railway, William Roberts, Esq., Highland Railway, M. Waddell, Esq., Caledonian Railway Bankers, National Bank of Scotland (St. Enoch Sq branch).

This institution (which has no political objects) affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support. It has been established to provide for the necessitous members, orphans, children, and widows of the railway officers and servants in the United Kingdom. Its object is to clothe, maintain, and educate orphan children, and to grant relief by annuities and money allowances to members who, from old age, disease, or accident, may be unable any longer to obtain a livelihood, and to the widows of those who may be left in distressed circumstances. Railway officers subscribe 10s. 6d. per annum, railway servants 8s. per annum to constitute them members, or they may subscribe 2s. per annum to the orphanage only. One moiety of the funds contributed by the public is apportioned between an officers' department and a servants' department in proportion to the amount the members severally subscribe; the other moiety of the donations is applicable to a special benevolent fund for relieving distress amongst officers or servants, whether members of the institution or not, and the widows and orphans of men killed in the performance of their duty. The sum set apart for the orphans of officers is appropriated to their maintenance and education in private establishments selected by their friends and approved by the board of management. Should the funds be insufficient to provide pensions or school benefits for all qualified applicants, there is an election by ballot, and the election of annuitants and orphans is vested in the subscribers, who have also the privilege of recommending cases for gratuitous out of the special benevolent fund. In dispensing relief the rules of the institution provide that "the most necessitous must at all times be first relieved."

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scotch committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, Duncan Macintosh, Glasgow & South-Western Railway, St. Enoch Station, Glasgow.

THE GLASGOW AGED SEAMEN RELIEF FUND.

Hon. president, William Robertson, Esq.; hon. vice-presidents, The Lord Provost, Sir Nathaniel Dnnlop, L.L.D., D.L., and others; chairman of committee, W. G. Gardiner (of James Gardiner & Co.); G. W. Service, 175 West George Street, hon. secretary and treasurer.

This society has been formed for the relief of old and infirm seamen, of whom there are large numbers in the city of Glasgow and district, whose means of support are extremely limited, and many of whom are practically destitute. The society gives assistance, by pensions or otherwise, to seamen connected with Glasgow and district, who have served for at least twenty-five years at sea, and are in want, and whose service has, at least in part, been in Glasgow-owned ships. The committee feel that this society should commend itself generally to the citizens of Glasgow, the great wealth and advancement of the city being very much dependent on its connection with the sea. The committee therefore make an urgent appeal for contributions. Subscriptions, donations, and legacies may be sent to the honorary secretary and treasurer, G. W. Service, 175 West George Street.

COTTAGE NURSES' TRAINING HOME.

South Avenue, Copland Road, Govan.

Branch Home, 172 Watt Street, S.S.

The Home was instituted in the year 1901 with the object of bringing within the reach of the rural population of Scotland the Village Nursing system of nursing, which has proved very successful in England. The objects of the home as now developed are the following:—(1) To provide nursing in their own homes in maternity and other cases for the working classes and the poor in the district of Govan and elsewhere, without distinction of creed. (2) To train women in district nursing in order to fit them for work as Cottage nurses in rural and other districts. (3) To train women as Certificated Midwives for the Highlands, or other districts, where those may be required. During 1912 the cases and visits were as follows:—Maternity cases attended, 780; general cases nursed, 232; visits paid by the nurses, 19,489. The Elder Cottage Hospital, which owes its origin to the late Mrs. John Elder's generosity, is worked in connection with the Training Home. Voluntary contributions for the nurses' services are received from the poorer patients in Govan and district, according to their means, whilst contributions are made by patients who are in receipt of Maternity benefit. The Home depends largely for its maintenance on the fees paid by Country Associations for the training of nurses; but with the additional expense of the Branch Home above mentioned, and the urgent need of increasing the staff of Nurses so as to overtake all the patients that need help, the Home requires an income of at least £200 per annum from subscriptions. Contributions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the hon. secretary, from whom copies of the Annual Report and any other information may be obtained.

GENERAL NURSING ASSOCIATION.

23 Scotia Street, St. George's Cross.

This Association was instituted for the purpose of training maternity nurses who would attend, for moderate fees, confinement cases among the middle and working classes to whom the charges for "Home" Nurses are quite prohibitive. It is a well known fact that much of the excessive infant mortality which prevails in the city is due to lack of proper nursing during the critical confinement period, and the object of the directors in founding this association was to mitigate this evil as much as possible by providing thoroughly trained nurses to take the place of the ignorant and untrained neighbours and friends who have hitherto been the nurses in most of these cases. During the past year 61 nurses were trained at the institution. These nurses, under medical supervision, attended 423 confinement cases among the very poor and destitute in the district. The nurses pay a moderate fee for their training, but as the beneficent work of the association entails considerable expense which is only partially met by these fees, donations and subscriptions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the hon. secretary, John Rankin, writer, 138 W. Regent St. Directors, Stuart Cranston, Esq.; Alex. Hurrell, Esq.; Rev. W. M. Rankin, B.D.; Angus Macphee, M.D.; C. W. Stewart, M.A., M.D.; R. W. Stuart, M.D.; hon. auditors, Gourlay & Deas, C.A., 128 St. Vincent Street.

THE GLASGOW ROYAL CANCER HOSPITAL.

(No lines required.) Founded 1890.

Hospital—132-138 Hill St., Garnethill.

Dispensary—132 Hill Street, Garnethill.

President, Robert Gourlay, LL.D.; vice-president, D. M. Scott; directors, Sir George T. Beatson, K.C.B., D.L., M.D., Thomas Binnie, jun., A. A. Stuart Black, ex-Billie Brechin, Wm. Brodie, Robt. Gonrlay, LL.D., John R. Macfie, R. D. MacEwan, Mrs Sturrock, T. Ogilvie Mathieson, D. M. Scott and W. P. Ure; consulting physician, Samson Gemmell, M.D., 17 Woodside Place; surgeons, Sir George T. Beatson, K.C.B., D.L., M.D., Duncan Macartney, M.A., M.D.; assistant surgeons, Roy F. Young, B.A., M.B., B.C.; W. A. Campbell, F.R.C.S., Eng.; district surgeon, J. Lindley Carstairs, M.A., M.D., C.M.; consulting surgeon for diseases of the ear and throat, Albert A. Gray, M.D., F.R.S.E.; director of research, Charles Edward Walker, D.Sc., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.; assistants, Harold Whittingham, M.B., Ch.B., and F. J. Robinson; secretary and treasurer, Thomson Brodie, C.A., 156 St. Vincent Street; matron, Miss S. W. Torrance. Ladies' Auxiliary Secretary, Miss Patricia M. MacGregor, 165 Great George Street, Hillhead, Glasgow.

The new extended Hospital contains 40 beds, and was formally opened by H.R.H. Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, on 30th May, 1912. The cost of maintenance will of necessity be much increased, and the directors appeal with confidence to the public for a continuance of the support which has so generously been accorded to them in the past. Excellent accommodation has been provided for the carrying on of research work in the new hospital. The director of research is Charles Walker, Esq., D.Sc., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., formerly of the Cancer Research Laboratory in Liverpool. Mr. Walker is a recognised authority in cancer research, and he, along with his assistants, carries on his work under the supervision of an advisory committee, of which Robert Muir, Esq., M.D., professor of pathology, University of Glasgow, D. Noel Paton, Esq., M.D., professor of physiology, University of Glasgow, and Sir George T. Beatson, M.D., are members. The annual cost of this Department amounts to about £900. The expense of the Department, with its select staff of workers, is of necessity heavy, and while the Directors fully realise the many calls made on the public, they feel that if the claims of this important work were sufficiently known, they would meet with a generous response. It would be a source of great gratification if, as the result of the work done in this Department, the cause of Cancer was discovered. The Department has now been in existence for a period of about three years, and the funds are reduced to less than £300. The Directors appeal with confidence to the public for the necessary sum to carry on the work. The directors think it right to mention that the research funds are kept quite separate from the subscriptions given for the upkeep of the hospital, so that the expenses of the research department are in no way met out of ordinary revenue.

This is the only hospital in Scotland devoted exclusively to cancer, affording free admission, and entirely supported by voluntary contributions. It has no connection with the Glasgow Cancer and Skin Institution.

THE GLASGOW CANCER AND SKIN INSTITUTION.

10 Newton Terrace, Charing Cross.

P.O. and National Telephone No. 4158.

Consulting Hours, 11 to 1 and 2 to 4 p.m.

"The Institution has now entered on its twenty-eighth year of usefulness. During the last twenty-seven years 2937 patients were treated for Cancer (935 males and 2002 females), and 20,413 patients suffering from Diseases of the Skin."

The outstanding features of the Institution continue to be:—(1) The advancement of the healing art in relation to the treatment of Cancer and allied diseases, by preserving the continuity of accredited remedies hitherto in use and adopting such others as increasing knowledge and experience prove worthy of confidence—with the view of obviating, if not altogether superseding, the use of the knife. In other words, the Therapeutic treatment of Cancer as distinguished from the operative. (2) Affording isolation and privacy to patients—particularly to women—whose aversion to any exposure or publicity in their treatment not only accounts for much of the delay and suffering endured by them before seeking relief, but is answerable for the large number of hopeless patients that have to be dealt with from day to day.

As hitherto, the Institution is conducted and maintained on the principle that all patients pay according to their circumstances.

Large Compound Bonuses. The Society being purely Mutual, all the profits belong to the assured. At the Investigation, as at 31st December, 1910, the large Compound Bonus of £1 15s. per cent. per annum was again declared. The profits distributed have been so large that the sums assured by the earlier policies are now much more than doubled in amount.

Absolute Security. The Funds at 31st December last amounted to nearly £6,000,000. The Valuation of the Society's Liabilities as at 31st December, 1910, made by the most stringent tests applied to any similar institution, shows that the SOCIETY'S RESERVES ARE UNSURPASSED by those of any other Life Assurance Office;

Liberal Conditions as to Foreign Residence, Loans to meet Premiums, Surrender Values, Non-Forfeitable Policies, &c.

The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the "GLENBOIG" and "STAR GLENBOIG" brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and sudden changes of temperature.

The GLENBOIG COMPANY purchased the Cumbernauld and Gartcosh Works (which were the closest competitors with Glenboig) for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers requiring a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer them with confidence, knowing that they are unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting "Glenboig" alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Marks—

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the "brand" is clearly stamped on the goods, as imitation brands and misleading uses of the word "Glenboig" are regularly resorted to by makers of inferior goods.

Glazed Sewage Pipes, and the Glenboig Junctions, Traps, and Inspection Chambers, acknowledged to be the surest preventive against Sewer Gases entering the house.
